Candidate: Annie Gómez Shockey

Office Running for: Magisterial District Judge for District Court 39-3-02

Candidate Summary: Annie R. Gómez Shockey has been serving as Magisterial District Judge since 2018. A Waynesboro native, Judge Gómez Shockey graduated from Waynesboro Area Senior High School (WASHS) in 2000. After graduating from WASHS, she obtained her Bachelor's in Political Science with a minor in Spanish from Shepherd University. She then received her law degree from the University of Pittsburgh in 2007 and was admitted to the practice of law in West Virginia in 2007 and Pennsylvania in 2008. Judge Gómez Shockey served the greater Waynesboro area as an attorney from 2008 until her election as Judge.

In addition to the daily tasks of processing complaints, holding trials and hearings, setting bail, and issuing warrants, Judge Gómez Shockey has cleared a backlog that included disposing of 3,100 pending cases, issuing over 1,600 warrants, and collecting over 800 accounts receivable. She presides over the second busiest district court in the 39th Judicial District.

Gómez Shockey, her husband Graig, and their six-year-old son are members of St. Andrew Catholic Church. She is a member of the Rotary Club of Waynesboro, helps with the Appalachian Trail Community, and is involved in various other community organizations.
