Office Running for: Supervisor Hamilton township

Candidate Bio

A resident of Hamilton township for most of my adult life affords me the distinct opportunity to know the community and its needs. I have raised my family and participated in a successful community business. My past business interests served the community by building and maintaining family residential homes in the area. My beliefs in democracy and fairness for all and my desire to serve the township is central to my professional and personal interests. I reside in Hamilton township with my wife and family. I work everyday to serve the greater good of the community.
