Candidate: Lindsay Loney

Office Running for: Greene Township Tax Collector

Candidate Bio

With a total of 17 years of accounting experience in her roles as Greene Township Treasurer and Secretary, a local small business owner and a former public accountant, Lindsay brings to the Tax Collector position a vast range of accounting expertise as well as first-hand knowledge of the Township as a whole.

A longtime resident of Chambersburg, Lindsay graduated from Chambersburg Area Senior High School and Shippensburg University with a bachelor's degree in accounting. Following graduation, she worked for Smith Elliott Kearns & Company, a public accounting firm, for five years preparing business and personal tax returns and conducting business valuations. In 2012, Lindsay was appointed Treasurer of Greene Township, where she has served for the past twelve years. Since 2021, she has acted as both Treasurer and Secretary of Greene Township. In addition, Lindsay and her husband are the owners of Greencastle Coffee Roasters, where she maintains the finances and he manages the operations.

Lindsay resides in Scotland with her husband, Michael, and their daughters. She is actively involved in the community and a longstanding member of Grand Point Church in Chambersburg.

In an effort to enhance her skills and prepare for the position, Lindsay completed the Act 48 Tax Collector Training Course and earned her Qualified Tax Collector Certification in January, 2025.

Lindsay has been endorsed by Kathy Frazer, Greene Township Tax Collector; Todd Burns, Greene Township Chairman; Travis Brookens, Greene Township Vice Chairman; and Shawn Corwell, Greene Township Supervisor.
